Re: United States v. Steven Charno
(Adjournment of Sentencing)
Docket No. 03CR865 (ADS)

JUN 30 2009 ★

Dear Judge Spatt:

LONG ISLAND OFFICE

I write to seek a final adjournment of sentencing herein from August 5, 2009 until mid-September or soon thereafter.

This request is occasioned by three considerations. First, the Government is in the process of formulating a final written submission in relation to this matter. I would like to receive it and respond to it in our sentencing submission; and give the Court due time to consider our submission prior to sentencing. Second, my client needs some additional time to wind up his medical practice and provide a reasonable, smooth transition for his many patients. Third, my client wishes to be certain of his availability for two particular medical events concerning a close family member scheduled for this Fall.

AUSA Martin Coffey has expressed his consent to this request, and indicated that he is unavailable on September 18, 2009.

I respectfully ask Your Honor to endorse this final sentencing adjournment request.

*Application granted.
Final adjournment
Sentencing is adjourned to September 25, 2009
at 3:30 P.M.*
